Not bad, but little more than a mini game that can get boring after a bit if you must try it then wait for it to go on sale. Harder Than I Remember!. One of your usual Tycoon games, telling the story of Armand LeBoeuf: a young french chef who just graduated from culinary school. We play through the basics of financial management, collect recipes of world cuisine and train other chefs to challenge the authority of OmniFood, a corporate firm that monopolized food industry years ago. Aside from side goals being a bit challenging to accomplish, the actual campaign is easy to get done. All you have to do is get things in order and wait till the end of month, which makes this game real casual and relaxing, more like a simulation even.

So far, I can count this game as one of my favorite tycoon games, aside from old classics like Theme Hospital or Zoo Tycoon. It gives you a perspective on food business and presents the basics of becoming a restaurateur. It is fun, and educating in a manner. Never have been a good cook myself, I get to stumble upon some really cool recipes that I'd like to try someday :) If you're into the subject, it's a neat game.. EDWARD NAVI. Too hardcore.. boring.. nothing special.. not worth the price... Duckhunt meets terminator, has baby raised by Carl from Slingblade. The only bad thing about this game is after playing a round, my index finger feels like I'm sixteen and just got home from a highschool prom.. I really like the game, for the money a couple of quid you can't go wrong. It's got all the riders and all the teams. It's not deep such as Football Manager but i prefer that and it works here. If you like Speedway then you'll like this, buy with confidence.

Amazing o. Made me special... Till I realised everyone has it. lauch napalm over and over and over again while sitting in same spot but then giant red orb of op finds u so you instantly die. grapple away but die to man with easy hold down left click across map beam laser. Very engaging game straight off the bat.. Great game, One of my favorites!. I love this game. It's a very unique management game that makes me recall the recent 'RPG Manager' except that this one is far more polished. The graphics are exceedingly pleasant to the eye, especially that of the 'Kitchen' and 'Mess Hall' which look outstanding when positioned next to each other. You manage the heroes and send them out to different provinces to adventure and bring back the loot which you use to pay wages and expenses. There is a small amount of micromanagement in terms of economics and producing items etc and the rooms you can build vary between about 8 or so different types so I assure you there is allot of replayability but the icing on the cake has to be the games sountrack which comprises of some well crafted middle ages folk music which I will have to aquire as background music for later DnD sessions with my mates. In all I would recommend for the sound price of \u00a34 of less that it is currently marketed at.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4B1xJWrxQHo>. This game is anything but "casual". The intensity of the levels you face as you progress will make you stone cold. Every shot will count; a single miss could end it all. Of course if you want to just chill there is endless mode and the lower levels, but this game is actually a lot harder than it looks. That's also part of the fun, especially when you win. Anyways, get this game it's great value for $5.. This plays just like the old Hitman games, would recommend.. downloaded ... started .. read the word authorize for a few mins with some cheap music that sounds like it was stolen from WAR Z .. 4 times and natta .. well worth the time to download!
